

A summary of the website features

RESOURCES

- Information on Arizona rock clubs, with website links (as available).
- Links to state and federal sites containing information about rock hunting in Arizona.
- A “Rock Hound Code of Ethics” (rules to be observed on field trips).
- Descriptions of equipment needed for collecting material. There are photos of the equipment and a description of how that equipment is used. You may click on the equipment photo to go to a site where the item may be purchased.
- Links to trusted websites where rock hounding supplies and tools are sold.
- Experience level required for various rock hounding trips in Arizona.
- Description of Trip Difficulty designations: Easy, Intermediate, Difficult, or Very Difficult.
- Health advisories and desert survival tips authored by a professional nurse.